

COACHING for TEACHERS
TEACHING ORIENTEERING part 1
Friday 4th July 2008
9.15am to 4.15pm
Gunnislake, Cornwall

Course Content

This is an active practical course for teachers and others who want to teach orienteering within the confines of private 'safe' enclosed areas, such as school or centre grounds. It covers progression of teaching exercises starting on the desktop and moving on to the classroom, school hall and school grounds. It will also include delivery of the English National Competition framework for Key stage 2 & 3. At the end of the course the candidate will understand and be able to teach the basic skills of orienteering and be able to identify ways in which orienteering may be used to assist delivery of the curriculum. NB Priority will be given to qualified teachers if the course is oversubscribed.

Certification and resources.

After completion of the day's training each participant will receive a Harvey publication National Curriculum Book K.S. 1-3, resource CD and a BOF attendance certificate. NB This course is not assessed.

COST

£10, includes resource book, CD and attendance certificate. This course is subsidised through the Coaching for Teachers scheme

NB Course fee must be paid before 15th June 2008

COURSE LOCATION

Delaware Outdoor Education Centre, Gunnislake, Cornwall.

APPLICATIONS AND ENQUIRIES

Applications and enquiries – Andy Barclay, Cornwall Outdoors, Penweathers Centre, Tresawls Road, Truro TR1 3LD Tel: 07968 892855 Email: abarclay@cornwall.gov.uk

Closing date for applications 15th June 2008

NAME _____ TEL NO. _____

ADDRESS _____ E-MAIL _____

_____ COURSE DATE 4th July 2008

I am a qualified teacher/student teacher/other (delete as appropriate)

Please include full payment of £10 course fee. Cheque payable to BOF.
Send to Andy Barclay, Cornwall Outdoors, Penweathers Centre, Tresawls Road,
Truro, TR1 3LD